

ANNOUNCEMENTS: FELLOWSHIPS

DOCTORAL AND POST-DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS

The GHI awards short-term fellowships to German and American doctoral students as well as postdoctoral scholars/Habilitanden in the fields of German history, the history of German-American relations, and the role of Germany and the United States in international relations. These fellowships are also available to German doctoral students and postdoctoral scholars/Habilitanden in the field of American history. The fellowships are usually granted for periods of one to six months but, depending on the funds available, can be extended by one or more months. The research projects must draw upon source materials located in the United States. The GHI will not provide funding for preliminary research. It will give clear priority to those post-doc projects that are designed for the "second book." The monthly stipend is approximately € 1,581 for doctoral students and € 2,650 for postdoctoral scholars. In addition, fellows based in Germany will receive reimbursement for their roundtrip airfare to the U.S. All fellowship recipients are required to present their research at the GHI during their grant period.

The deadlines for applications are May 20 and October 15, 2005. Applications should include cover letter, curriculum vitae, proof of academic degree (or transcripts), project description (3,000 words), research schedule for the fellowship period, and at least one letter of reference. While applicants may write in either English or German, we recommend that they use the language in which they are most proficient. They will be notified about the outcome within approximately two months after the deadline. Please send applications to:

GHI INTERNSHIPS

The GHI Internship Program gives German and American students of history, political science, and library studies an opportunity to gain experience at a scholarly research institute. Interns assist individual research projects, work for the library, take part in the preparation and hosting of conferences, and help with publications. They receive a small stipend. The program is flexible and tries to accommodate the interns' interests, abilities, and goals. A two-month minimum stay is required; a three-month stay is preferred. There is a rolling review of applications. Applicants interested in coming to Washington in 2006 are encouraged to submit their application by July 2005. German students are strongly advised to familiarize themselves with the American visa requirements beforehand. The process has become complicated; information is available at the website of the American Embassy in Berlin at www.usembassy.de. The GHI cooperates with an organization authorized by the State Department to issue the relevant papers to obtain a visa. Applicants accepted into the internship program will receive further information on the procedure in their acceptance letters. Applications should contain a cover letter, a CV, a letter of recommendation, and copies of Zwischenprüfungs- or Abschlusszeugnisse. You can apply either in English or German. For further information please contact Anke Ortlepp (ortlepp@ghi-dc.org).
