

The German Historical Institute cordially invites you to attend the

Ninth Gerd Bucerius Lecture

Human Dignity and Freedom of the Press

Lecture by Jutta Limbach

Jutta Limbach will deliver the ninth Gerd Bucerius Lecture of the German Historical Institute. She will speak on the topic "Human Dignity and Freedom of the Press." The Gerd Bucerius Lecture series is sponsored by the ZEIT Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius. Professor of civil law at the Free University in Berlin since 1972, Jutta Limbach was Senatorin für Justiz (state attorney general) for Berlin from 1989 to 1994. In 1994 she was appointed to the Bundesverfassungsgericht (Germany's supreme court), where she served as chief justice until her retirement in 2002. From 2002 to 2008 she was the President of the Goethe Institut. The lecture will take place at the Willard Hotel, Washington DC. To register for this event please send an e-mail to events@ghi-dc.org.
