THE GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE CORDIALLY INVITES YOU

GERMAN UNIFICATION SYMPOSIUM/HERTIE LECTURE

1990-2010: The Unfinished Business of Unifying Europe
AMBASSADOR WOLFGANG ISCHINGER

MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 2010
4:00 - 6:00 PM

GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE
1607 NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE NW
WASHINGTON DC 20009

Wolfgang Ischinger was the German ambassador to the United States from 2001 to 2006. He previously served as the Foreign Office’s Director General for Political Affairs and in that capacity he represented Germany at some of the most critical negotiations on the future of Europe, including the Bosnia Peace Talks at Dayton, OH and in negotiations on EU and NATO enlargement. In 2007 Ischinger became the European Union’s representative in the troika negotiations on the future of Kosovo, which resulted in the recognition of Kosovo by most EU member states. He is currently the Chairman of the Munich Security Conference.

The Hertie Lecture and German Unification Symposium is generously supported by the Hertie Foundation.
