Gerhard A. Ritter is Professor Emeritus at the University of Munich and a recipient of the Großes Bundesverdienstkreuz. He has written numerous books on the social and political history of modern Germany, including major studies on the labor movement and the rise of the welfare state. His recent books Wir sind das Volk! Wir sind ein Volk! Geschichte der deutschen Einigung (2009) and The Price of German Unity: Reunification and the Crisis of the Welfare State (2011) explore the social policy consequences of the unification process in Germany.

The Gerald D. Feldman Memorial Lecture was established by the Friends of the German Historical Institute in 2010 to honor the legacy and achievements of Gerald D. Feldman (1937-2007). The
