

THE GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO THE

HELMUT SCHMIDT PRIZE LECTURE

Americanization? Europeanization? Globalization?

The German Economy since 1945

MARY NOLAN

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2013

6:00 - 8:00 PM

THE GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE
1607 NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE NW
WASHINGTON DC 20009

Mary Nolan is a professor of history at New York University. Trained as an historian of modern Germany, she has explored a broad range of topics in her research. Most recently, her work has focused on European and American economic, cultural, and political relations and interactions during the long twentieth century. Prof. Nolan's book, The Transatlantic Century: Europe and America, 1890-2010, was published in 2012.

The Helmut Schmidt Prize is generously sponsored by the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius.

PROGRAM

6:00 PM LECTURE AND AWARD CEREMONY

7:30 PM RECEPTION

RSVP (ACCEPTANCES ONLY) BY OCT 17
TEL 202-387-3355 FAX 202-387-6437
EMAIL EVENTS@GHI-DC.ORG

PHOTO CREDIT: Advertisements for Schultheiss beer and Coca-Cola on two building facades in Berlin-Schöneberg in 1975. © bpk, Berlin/Klaus Koch/Art Resource, NY