

THE GERMAN EMBASSY AND THE GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO

World War I Causes, Events, and Legacy

LECTURE AND PANEL DISCUSSION

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 2014
6:00 - 8:00 PM

GERMAN EMBASSY AUDITORIUM
4645 RESERVOIR ROAD NW
WASHINGTON, DC 20007

Christopher Clark's bestselling book The Sleepwalkers has sparked an intense debate on the events leading up to the outbreak of the First World War in 1914 and the lessons those events might hold for policy makers in the present. In his lecture, Clark will revisit the war and its legacy. Roger Chickering, an acclaimed authority on the war and its impact on German society and culture, will comment.

RSVP BY SEPTEMBER 1, 2014
TEL 202-387-3355 FAX 202-387-6437
EMAIL KU-S@WASH.DIPLO.DE

PROGRAM

- 6:00 PM Reception
- 6:30 PM Welcome and Introduction
Ambassador Dr. Peter Wittig and GHI Director Prof. Hartmut Berghoff
- 6:40 PM Lecture
Prof. Christopher Clark (Cambridge University)
- 7:10 PM Comment
Prof. Roger Chickering (Georgetown University)
- 7:20 PM Panel Discussion and Q&A

PHOTO CREDIT Removing the dead from the trenches during World War I. Courtesy of the Library of Congress.