 GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE
WASHINGTON DC

Thirty years after opening its doors in the US capital, the German Historical Institute Washington DC is expanding its operations. Please join us for the opening of our new Pacific Regional Office, GHI West, for the First Annual Bucorius Lecture delivered by Armin Nassehi on "The Knowledge of/about Migrants: Preconceptions, Misconceptions, Limits."

Armin Nassehi is Professor of Sociology at LMU Munich and editor of Kursbuch, one of Germany's leading intellectual magazines. An outspoken participant in public debate, he is considered "among the most thoughtful intellectual voices in Germany today" (New York Review of Books).
