REVOLUTION IS IN THE STREETS

1968 from an International Perspective

The “Sixties,” especially the pivotal year of 1968, were a global phenomenon, witnessing protest movements in places as far apart as Chicago, Berlin, Mexico City, Prague, Paris, and Rome.

This series highlights some of these events through the eyes of contemporary films, and discusses their legacies with former participants and scholars of this turbulent time.

All films will be shown at the Goethe-Institut at 6:30pm

Please RSVP for films to 202.289.1200 or by e-mail at rsvp@washington.goethe.org

GOETHE-INSTITUT
