6:00 - 8:00 PM

GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE
1607 NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE NW
WASHINGTON DC 20009

Ulrich Herbert is professor of 19th and 20th century history at the University of Freiburg. Since 2007 he has been the Director of the Freiburg Institute for Advanced Studies at the University of Freiburg. His research focuses on the history of migration and foreign labor in Germany, particularly during the Third Reich. In 1999 Prof. Herbert received the Leibniz Award of the German Research Association (DFG) in modern and contemporary history. Konrad Jarausch is the Lurcy Professor of European Civilization at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He has researched and written on a wide array of topics in 20th century German history. He is currently at work on a history of 20th century Europe focused on the theme "taming modernity."
